ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The defendant is to be confined to his residence for a period of six (6) months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office and as soon as practicable. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or vocation training programs, and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any fine, restitution or special assessment obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the fine, restitution or special assessment obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

The Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine. The Court will waive the fine in this case.

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $718,066.00. The Court will waive the interest requirement in this case. Payments should be made payable to, "Clerk, U.S. District Court" for distribution to the victims.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total special assessment of $300.00.

The restitution and special assessment are due immediately. It is recommended that the defendant participate in the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program and provide a minimum payment of not less than $25.00 per quarter. In the event the entire restitution and special assessment are not paid prior to the commencement of supervision, the defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of not less than $200.00, to commence 30 days after release from confinement.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within thirty (30) days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of the restitution and special assessment remains unpaid.

The supervision of this defendant shall be transferred to the District of New Jersey.
